

Winston County Runaway

by The Tonk Honkys © 2013

Been longer than you think since your mama's been gone
Since then you've been singing that same, old song
Can't tell a lie, won't even give a wave
It's been a while since you have stayed

Home ain't where it used to be
Places and faces don't look the same
Can't go back if you don't know the way
'Til then you're known as a runaway

Winston County Runaway
Run all night and into day
Can't keep running if you don't know why you stay
Just a Winston County Runaway

Riding the back roads night after night
Can't ever catch up with your own life
Truth is much harder when you've gone astray
Since then you're known as a runaway

Winston County Runaway
Run all night and into day
Can't keep running if you don't know why you stay
Just a Winston County Runaway